

2019 Paraboll Pinot Noir Anderson Valley

As a five-generation Boonville family, words and phrases of Boontling — our local language widely spoken from 1880-1920 — are still used in our households. “Para” is an art term for a deep, cherry-red color and “Boll” or “Bahl” means of excellent quality in Boontling. Put together, this Pinot Noir is a “great red,” sourced from our estate grapes in the heart of Boontling country.

Our Paraboll was crafted with the same care and personal attention as our other Pinots, but employing a different ripening schedule and barrel regimen. This wine was given additional hang time before harvest for a darker fruit profile, fermented with 10% whole clusters, then aged in 63% new French oak for 11 months with heavy and medium-plus toast barrels.
